

THE POLITICS OF DIFFICULT PASTS: MEMORY IN GLOBAL CONTEXT

All events held 10:00 am—1:00 pm

918 International Affairs, 420 West 118th Street, Columbia University

These conversations bring together scholars in the social sciences and humanities, neuroscientists and psychologists, and curators of historical and memorial museums to explore the relation between individual and collective remembering and the politics of national and transnational memory in the world today.

Thursday,
October 24
Testimony and 9/11: Memory
Change
over Time

Friday,
December 6
Japan
and 3/11: Memory
in Formation

Friday,
February 14
History
on Display:
How Viewers
Respond

Friday,
May 2
The Past
in Public: Museums and Memory

More information at cgt.columbia.edu/conferences/memory

GLOBAL THOUGHT
COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY